- New Jersey City University matriculated students, having completed their required ACR courses, with a minimum GPA of 2.5, may elect a minor in Media Arts.
- Application to the Department Chair is required for a review of records, and to determine eligibility.
- The applicant will be assigned a faculty mentor who will help guide he/she through the process of choosing the courses appropriate for the desired concentration.
- Students may elect to complete a program including a minimum of 18 to a maximum of 24 credits.
- Although each program of study will be unique to each student, pre-requisites for all courses will be adhered to without exception.
- When the program of study has been determined it will be submitted to the Chair for review, and will become part of the student's permanent file.
- Each semester, the student will meet with his/her mentor for advisement.
