

NEW JERSEY CITY UNIVERSITY
EMERGING LEADERS INSTITUTE
APPLICATION FORM

*Please return application form to:
Office of the Dean of Students
Gilligan Student Union Building, Room 127*

The Emerging Leaders Program is designed to strengthen the leadership skills of first year students at New Jersey City University. Students must apply and are accepted based on interests and previous leadership experiences. In addition to these requirements and as part of the application process, applicants will be asked to describe their goals for the first year at NJCU.

Once an applicant is accepted, s/he will participate in student leadership workshops and attend various off-campus field trips with other first year students. Not only will Emerging Leaders participants gain leadership abilities while learning new skills, they will establish a network of friends and mentors, as well as become an integral part of the university community.

First-year students who are interested in participating in the Emerging Leaders Program should complete the application below.
